

No Child's Play

This exhibition opens a window into the world of children during the Holocaust.

Unlike other Holocaust exhibitions, it does not focus on history, statistics or descriptions of physical violence.

Instead, toys, games, artwork, diaries, and poems highlight some of the personal stories of the children, providing a glimpse into their lives during the Holocaust.

The exhibition, on loan from Yad Vashem will be showcased at the following libraries:

Chester Lane Library:

Monday 21st – Friday 25th January 2019
(closing at noon)

Haydock Library:

Monday 28th January – Saturday 2nd February 2019.

Holocaust Memorial Day 2019:

Torn from home

HOLOCAUST
MEMORIAL
DAY 27/1
